

The Challenges of the SESAR Programme for the Air Traffic Management Industry

Pierre Bachelier (Airbus), Jean Marc Loscos (DSNA), Luc Deneufchatel (EUROCAE), Bob Darby (Chairman)

Join The IET Aerospace Technical Symposium in Toulouse for an in-depth look at the Single European Sky ATM Research Programme and the challenges to the Air Traffic Management Industry.

This event will cover the ways in which the civil air traffic will evolve through SESAR. Learn about the plans and challenges for intelligent aircraft, in order to work with increasingly capable ground systems, to bring better levels of service to all concerned.

Date & Time: 31 October 2014 at 13:30-17:30

Venue: French Direction de Services de la Navigation Aerienne (DSNA), 1 avenue du Docteur Grynfolgel, Toulouse

Registration: www.theiet.org/Aerospace

Transport

www.theiet.org/communities

The Institution of Engineering and Technology (IET) is working to engineer a better world. We inspire, inform and influence the global engineering community, supporting technology innovation to meet the needs of society. The Institution of Engineering and Technology is registered as a Charity in England and Wales (No. 211014) and Scotland (No. SC038698).