

Dr Robin Catchpole,
Institute of Astronomy,
Cambridge University

FREE ENTRY

Venues:

9th September Preston
6:30pm

10th September Lytham
12:30pm

10th September
Barrow-in-Furness 7:30pm

11th September Workington
7:30pm

Use the QR code below for event registration:

theiet.org/communities

#ForThoseWhoDoMore

Lancs and Cumbria Local Network

Are We Star Dust or Nuclear Waste?

The Story of the Life of a Star

Everything we see around us, apart from hydrogen and helium, was made in stars during the first two thirds of the life of the Universe. Dr Catchpole will tell this story and show how the life of a star is also the battle of matter against gravity. A battle that matter loses with either a whimper, or an explosion that for a short while outshines a galaxy.

© Getty images